

THE ONLINE PAYMENT PROCESS IS WORKING CORRECTLY

If you are trying to renew your Certificate to Dispense online and the prompt to renew is not being offered, the reason is you may not have renewed last year in 2015. Refer to your Certificate to Dispense you currently have and check the expiration date. You can go to forms and print the RENEWAL APPLICATION CERTIFICATE TO DISPENSE. You will pay the fees accordingly. EXAMPLE: for the 2015 renewal the fee will be 225.00 and 113.00 late fee, a total of 338.00 along with the current fee of 225.00 for 2016. One check is acceptable.

You can use the Physician Search to verify the expiration of your Certificate to Dispense. If you don't see the expiration date that would mean you may have missed more than 2015. You can send us an email to inquire about your Certificate to Dispense. info@aznd.gov

Renewal Applications postmarked after 7-1-2016 are considered late.

The late fee cannot be waived.

The Board is not responsible for any problems you may encounter while using the online system, or delays in mailing.
